

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Work has been begun on the Music Hall floor.

The Cincinnati Musical Club had a fine masked ball in Turner Hall last evening.

There was an insignificant blaze yesterday afternoon at No. 460 West Fifth street.

Charles and Amos Davis, convicted of gambling, were released from the Workhouse yesterday.

The Trustees of the Fourth District School held a meeting yesterday and suspended Mr. Harvey until they could investigate his case.

Arrangements have been made for a course of lectures next week on the Kindergarten system by Prof. W. H. Haulmann, of Milwaukee.

The Cincinnati Colonization Society enjoyed an elegant hop last night at Workmen's Hall. Mayor Moore was present and delivered a speech.

A boy named Wm. Griffith fell from the Narrow-gauge Railroad bridge on Montgomery Road, about half-past 5 o'clock last night, and broke his arm.

The Executive Board of the Cincinnati Society for the Suppression of Vice has adopted an appeal asking our citizens to come to their aid financially.

"Warren County," the first engine on the Miami Valley Railway, was put in successful operation yesterday, and made its trial trip up Limekiln Hollow.

Wm. Stenau was taken in this morning on the charge of setting on foot the scheme of chance known as the "Sample Game." He will have his trial Saturday.

The plans and contracts for the completion of the Eden Park Street Railroad have been entered into, and within six weeks we may expect to see the road finished.

Prof. E. S. Wayne will have the analysis of the contents of the stomach of the late John Martin completed this evening. The inquest will be commenced next Tuesday.

Passenger train No. 3, Southern Railroad, was stalled last Tuesday night near Hinton Station. This is the second outrage of the kind in two months, the engineer at the former time losing his life.

Lizzie Terrell was fined $25 this morning on the charge of keeping a house of ill fame at No. 240 West Third street, but the girls who were arrested with her got off with having a sentence suspended over them.

Marks Levi, a lad living at the corner of Sixth and Elm streets, fell under the wheels of a carriage in front of the Grand Opera-house last night and was run over. Strange to say, the boy was not in the least injured.

John Hicks, an alleged sneak-thief, was arrested at the Grand Hotel yesterday on general principles. It is said that he is wanted at Dayton, Ky., for burglary, and he will be held until an investigation can be made.

The Atlantic Billiard Rooms, next door to the Enquirer office, were entered through a rear window during the night and five boxes of cigars, two silver watches and an overcoat stolen. No trace of the thieves has been found.

George Fehleisel, forty-six years of age, and a tanner by trade, fell dead on the porch of his boarding-house yesterday, on the corner of Elm and Elder streets. The coroner's jury found that his death was caused by intemperance.

The Consolidated Street Railroad Company has sent a letter to the Board of Public Works, stating that the reason why Route 9 was not completed to Broad Street was that the Company were enjoined from doing so by the property holders on Central Avenue west of Mohawk Bridge.

Rev. Alfred N. Gilbert, of the Richmond-street Christian Church, has been adjudged by the Committee of Arbitration not guilty of the charges preferred against him by Rev. W. L. Hayden, Rev. Daniel Sommer and F. L. Morling. The Committee was in session for fifteen days.

Levi Counts of Madison County, Moses F. Counts of Tippecanoe, and Gustave Camberger, George L. Deckert and Benjamin West of this city, who were indicted by the late Grand Jury, were arraigned before Judge Swing yesterday, and had the time of their trial set. Counts and Camberger gave bail and the rest were committed to jail.

Heinz Waliker, the manager of the Walther Theater, and his business partner John F. Russell and F. Tottenborn, yesterday had suit instituted against them by Theodore Klotz, representing twelve members of the stock company, for the sum of $300, arrears in salary. "Squire Erkel will hear the case on Monday afternoon next.

Messrs. Henry Hesse, Fred. Horstman, J. Alexius, Chas. Koenig, D. Kapke, H. Kluesener, G. Kastrop, E. Rahnkamp, Ed. Semmelman, Jos. Heinleyer, C. Kock, Wm. Kluesener, P. Freer, Henry and Herman Lowman and Wm. Korkeneyer, all of this city, will start at an early date to settle on the Cincinnati Colonization Society's land, in Polk and Ford Counties, Kansas.

Selma, "America's Colored Patti," gave an exhibition of her wonderful vocal ability yesterday afternoon at College Hall. She sang the "Staccato Polka," a cavatina from "Lucia di Lammermoor," the "Elezar Waltz" and the "Last Rose of Summer" in a style that fairly surprised the audience with its excellence. She will give a public concert to-morrow night at the same hall.

An inquest was held at 9 o'clock this morning on the body of James McDermott, who died suddenly the other day at the Hospital. The deceased had frequently been complaining of pain in the chest and side, and had also been suffering from severe attacks of cough and palpitation of the heart. The jury rendered a verdict of death from heart disease, superinduced by asthma.

The body of a man was discovered floating in Millcreek, opposite Liberty street, last evening and after it was drawn ashore a boy identified it as the body of his father, Bernard Stehle, a cooper, forty-three years of age, who lived at No. 63 Riddle street. He had been drinking hard for some time, and last Saturday called upon a physician, who gave him a prescription. After taking this he left home and was not again seen. Coroner Stich was notified and will hold an inquest.

Exposition Commissioners.
At the meeting of the Exposition Commissioners yesterday, the Brewers' Committee reported that $10,000 had been promised by the brewers of the city, provided that they be allowed to sell beer on the ground. The report was laid on the table. The question as to the feasibility of holding an Exposition this year then came up and drew out a large amount of talk, both in favor and against, but no definite action was taken. The old resolution, that no further steps should be taken until $75,000 guarantee was raised, was reconsidered, discussed and again laid on the table. The additional subscription of $300 was reported and the meeting adjourned.

SNELBAKER AND RYAN.

Their Case Dismissed Without a Trial.

When the case of Thomas E. Snelbaker and George W. Ryan was called in the Police Court this morning the Prosecuting Attorney made a professional application for a continuance. He stated as his reason for making this request that the two witnesses, Daniel Flannigan and John Carr, were absent from the city, and that due diligence had been made on behalf of the city to procure their attendance. If they were present they would testify to the facts as stated in the affidavits upon which the charges were based, but since they were not here, nothing could be done until their attendance was procured.

The affidavits were then handed over to the defendants, but the Judge, without waiting for any discussion of the case, dismissed it entirely, stating as his reason for so doing that if he should bind the prisoners over to the Grand Jury on the evidence contained in the affidavits they would be surely dismissed, since the affidavits could not be brought before the Grand Jury as evidence.

Mr. Campbell then stated that the affidavits were entirely false and malicious, and he objected to their being placed on record in the Court. They were of a scandalous nature, and if any newspaper published them or any of the statements made therein he would at once bring suit against that paper for criminal libel.

In reference to the Chief of Police, he stated that a conversation which he had with him yesterday greatly modified the harsh opinion which he had before held concerning him, and he did not now believe that his intentions were as malicious as he at first supposed.

Col. Snelbaker now offers a reward of $100 for the arrest and delivery in the city of Flannigan and Carr, and it is stated that upon investigating the record of Flannigan, the Colonel has secured proof which connects Flannigan with the killing of Officer Kunkel.

Police Commissioners.

The Board of Police Commissioners met in regular session yesterday, and listened to the opinion of the City Solicitor regarding the printing of the annual reports.

He stated that the Board had power only to have such printing done as was necessary to the department. The annual reports did not belong to this class, and can only be printed under the Auditor's contract. In view of this opinion the following bids were ordered filed: For printing 600 copies of the annual health report, of 144 pages: Wrightson & Co., $180 70, making a little over 30 cents apiece; Robert Clarke & Co., $280, making 63 cents apiece; Elm Street Printing Company, $117 84, making less than 20 cents apiece.

The Xenia Train Fiend.

The Little Miami authorities were determined to secure the arrest, if possible, of the fiend who attempted to wreck a train Tuesday night near Xenia, and their efforts were successful. The Marshal of Cedarville was successful in securing the arrest of Patrick Ryan yesterday morning, whom he at once suspected of being the guilty party. He took him in, and charging the offense on him, Ryan owned up that he helped a negro to put a tie and a piece of iron on the track, and finally made a clean breast of it. He was taken to Xenia, had a preliminary hearing which fully established his guilt, and was put in the Green County Jail, where he now rests in default of bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. He will, without doubt, be dealt with to the utmost extent of the law.

The Martin Heirs.

Mr. John Martin, a wealthy citizen, died at No. 303 West Court street, last October. Since that time members of the family have made charges that he had been poisoned by some one, who was after his estate. An analysis of his stomach was made and the result will be made public this evening.

Mr. Samuel Cooper, an interested party, states that Mr. Martin was married in Australia and had four children by his wife—Mrs. Sarah Ann Martin, Emily Wetherill, Hannah Cooper and Henry C. Martin—who are the lawful heirs.

The deceased, after the death of his wife, married again, a Mrs. Honer. He deserted her, however, and fled to this city. It is alleged that this lady is still alive. He then married a Mrs. Burgess, who had been a bridesmaid at Martin's second marriage. Mr. Cooper now claims that this Mrs. Burgess is trying to rob the legal heirs of Mr. Martin. The case will be tried in the courts.

Labor Party.

The City Executive Committee of the Socialist Labor Party met last night at Arbeiter Hall.

A resolution was adopted that all the members of the Committee be empowered to receive donations in the way of campaign funds.

John R. Dertus was elected Vice President.

The Committee arranged for an address to the people of from ten to fifteen thousand copies.

A motion was carried to the effect that if the Bard Bill is repealed, the Committee will nominate the additional members for the Police Commission.

It was announced that all ward nominations must be in by Monday night, or they will not be able to get on the general ticket.

The Chairman will call the Convention together again in case the Bard Bill remains unreppealed.

The candidates of the party meet in Room No. 17 at Arbeiter Hall to-night.

BERTHA VON HILLERN

Completes Her Hundred Mile Walk.
About 8 o'clock last night Greenwood Hall became filled to its utmost capacity with an enthusiastic audience to witness the close of Miss Von Hillern's one hundred-mile walk. At the close of her ninety-eight miles she was so far ahead of time that she rested 15 minutes, and on her last two miles she walked slowly, partly on account of the enthusiasm of the spectators, who crowded closely upon the track. As she neared the close the applause became louder and louder until there was a continued stream of enthusiastic cheering. Her last mile was finished ten minutes ahead of time, and when she returned to her dressing-room she submitted to a medical examination, which showed the pulsations of her pulse to be ninety-eight, and the temperature of her body one hundred, showing that she had not been severely tested. Next week she will go to Louisville, where arrangements have been made for walks similar to those made here.

ENGLAND'S RIGHTFUL KING.—It is a curious fact, and one that is not generally known, that King Victor Emanuel was, by the strict law of succession, the rightful King of England. He was descended in a direct line from Charles I. The youngest daughter of that unhappy monarch, the Princess Henrietta Maria, married Gaston d'Orleans, the brother of Louis XIV. She died, leaving two daughters. The eldest became Queen of Spain, and died childless. The younger married the heir to the House of Savoy, and was the ancestress of the late King of Italy. After the Revolution of 1688, when the right to succession to the British throne was settled by act of Parliament, the House of Savoy was excluded on account of the Catholic religion professed by its members. The House of Hanover, of which Queen Victoria is the representative, was several removes further from the direct succession, deriving, as it did, its claims from James I., through Queen Elizabeth of Bohemia, and her daughter, the Electress Sophia. A striking commentary on the consequences of human actions is afforded by this story of a royal inheritance. When Charles I. espoused a Catholic princess he could scarcely have imagined that by this act he was excluding his direct descendants from the throne of their fathers; and still less could his Queen have foreseen that any descendant of her favorite child, so carefully trained by her in the tenets of her own religion, should ever overthrow the temporal power of the Pope, and be himself installed upon the throne.—[Boston Pilot.

John Bright's father seems to have been an extremely kind-hearted mill owner. We are told that on winter nights he would stand at his mill gates, lantern in hand, giving directions to men to look after the children (to whom he was especially kind) on their way home. His work people were so well paid as to enable them, if careful, to make a provision for old age, and for those overtaken by calamity a pension was provided. He would never give a pair of old boots to a man in distress, but gave him an order for a new pair. A reformed drunkard, who avowed that alcohol had caused the roots of his hair to perish, once went to him for a subscription for a wig. Mr. Bright glanced over the list, and finding that the contributors were poor people, declined to contribute unless the money was returned. Then he gave him a handsome wig.

For the identical work which women perform in the Government Department for $800 per annum, men receive salaries varying from $1,200 to $1,600. Mr. A. Ward's quaint query, "Why is this thus?" applies here.

Do not "throw up the sponge" if you have suffered with a hacking cough for ever so long. Try the old standard remedy, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which has saved the lives of thousands. 25c.

Fragrant and Delicate Odors.
Each flower contains a fragrant substance, and the separation of this substance in a manner so as to retain all of its sweetness, requires the greatest experience and care. Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes are prepared by a process that so retains their natural fragrance.

Convenient alike to the business center and the best resident portion of Philadelphia, and conducted as a model first-class hotel, the Colonnade has achieved a deserved and enduring popularity.

Oysters 25c per quart. Bucket given with every quart. 286 West Sixth street.

The Northern Magnolia.
Mr. J. P. Olmer, corner of Fourth and Hammond streets, is selling trees in lots of fifty, payable when they grow. Parties desiring to purchase will do well to call early.

Positively the Best.
Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound is the very best compound ever prepared, advertised, or sold by any person or under any name whatever, for the immediate relief and permanent cure of coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, asthma, and all diseases of a consumptive type. It will thoroughly eradicate these alarming symptoms in one-half the time required to do so by any other medicine. It is purely vegetable, and contains not a particle of opium or other dangerous drug. It never fails. Every bottle guaranteed to perform exactly as represented.

John Keeshan, Sixth and Walnut streets; J. D. Wells, Fourth street and Central Avenue; H. F. Reum, Fifth and Broadway. Also Agents for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which is sure death to worms. Pleasant to take and requires no physic. Price 25c. Try it.

Accident.
A gentleman was lately thrown from his buggy in Harlem, New York, and received a severe sprain of his left ankle, besides other bruises. Before he could reach his residence his ankle and foot were so swollen his boot had to be cut from his foot. Failing to get the immediate attention of a physician, some one suggested Pond's Extract to relieve the intense pain with which he was suffering. The relief was so prompt and effectual that when his family physician arrived it was decided to continue it for the present, the physician predicting at least six weeks confinement. The patient kept bandages around the sprained parts, wetting them every half hour, night and day, for five days, when he was able to wear a tight shoe to go to his business with the use of a stout cane, not crutch. By rubbing the ankle three or four times a day since the injured part has become as strong as ever before, which is unusual in such severe sprains. He used nothing but Pond's Extract. His physician, who used and prescribes Pond's Extract, had never used it in a case like this before, and pronounced this as the most convincing proof of the remarkable power of the Extract. The above case is only one of a very large number of cases of sprains from falls on ice this winter, and from other causes, cured by Extract.
